Stacey:

Thank you for your question. When you talk about additional items, do you mean you might have more things you would like to raffle off at your event that you won't know about till later? If so, you may send our office another letter like the one attached with the additional items at a later date. In our approval letters, it states that if you need to make any changes or add to your letter you may do so by submitting another letter with the changes.

Please let us know if there is anything else we may do to assist you.

Thank you,
Kayla

Kayla,
Attached is our notification of raffle form. My question is, since we are 30 days out from the event, if the committee would secure additional items and we would want to switch something out, would we be able to? And if so, what would be the best way to notify you of that change?
Thank you!
